Ralph will read from his newly published book, Birth of a Psychedelic Culture, which delves into the pioneering work he did with Ram Dass and Timothy Leary starting in 1960 at Harvard and talk about the where that work has taken him and show some selections of films he has been working on including "Entheogenesis" and "From Millbrook to Hollywood."

About This Event

The 2010 Ambiotica is produced by Michael Gosney and Joegh Bullock, with co-conspirators Anon Salon, Earthdance Network, Cyberset Music and Media and Synergetic Press.

Launched by Joegh Bullock and Michael Gosney in 2006, AMBIOTICA is an ongoing experiment in social flirtation and cultural stimulation: our post-modern version of the influential salons and private clubs of the past. Word of mouth and limited email invitations are attracting this creatively cultivated eclectic mix. Ambiotica is an integral evening, designed to serve our shared aspirations for a thriving culture, to focus and amplify the positive intentions and actions that our community embodies. Participation in this environment of conversation, performances, interactive art, exhibits and film – fueled by inventive musical grooves and exotic elixirs – calls for elegant, expressive dress and an intention beyond the obvious FUN we conspire together.

The seed for this edition of Ambiotica was planted on December 15, 2009 at at City Lights Books in San Francisco with the Birth of a Psychedelic Culture event
